

Scholarship

The third course (course 2a) of the

1st ESAVS Asia Full Veterinary Dermatology Study Program in South-East Asia 21 - 25 January 2019, Bogor Indonesia

The complete program consists of 6 consecutive courses in total.

APPLICATION FOR ESAVS Asia SCHOLARSHIP

The European School for Advanced Veterinary Studies Asia (ESAVS Asia) will offer financial support to encourage veterinarians with limited financial means, access to the top level training in veterinary dermatology by attending the Veterinary Dermatology Study Program in South-East Asia.

Particular emphasis is put on providing the opportunity to participate in this program to gifted veterinarians with genuine financial needs.

The scholarship consists of a 100 Euro per person financial support for the registration into each course as long as there are enough funds to do this. Delegates will be responsible for their own travel and accommodation expenses. The stipend will be a reduction of registration costs from the course.

The following selection criteria need to be addressed in the scholarship application:

1. proof of limited financial means / low income;
2. proof of veterinary qualification;
3. evidence of interest and commitment to high level clinical veterinary science;
4. proof of adequate ability to speak and write in English;
5. a letter of recommendation, preferably but not exclusively by a former ESAVS course participant;
6. a brief curriculum vitae/resume.

Selection Procedure: A Selection Committee is appointed by the ESAVS Asia Board for awarding up to 10 scholarships. Please use attached application form and send it together with above listed documents to: info@esavs-asia.org.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 15th October, 2018

For enquiries, please contact Ms Sabien van der Velde, sabien.vandervelde@esavs-asia.org
